

ONE CENT--LAST EDITION--ONE CENT

NORTH SHORE FOLKS MAY LOSE VOTE

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 6, NO. 3 Chicago, Saturday, September 30, 1916 398

MILLIONAIRE IS NAMED IN BLACKMAIL CASE —GIRLS TELL ALL

The Day Book Exposes Conspiracy of Silence—Francis
Junkermann, Cedar Rapids Millionaire, Is Man
Involved—Girls Make Interesting
Letters Public.

(In printing the following story The Day Book is only carrying out its policy of printing real news no matter whom the news may hit. In the Iowa merchant alleged "black-mail" story the seven trust papers have entered into a conspiracy of silence. They have promised not to publish the name of the merchant. The Day Book gives it to its readers.)

Francis Junkermann, head of the

Churchill Drug Co., Cedar Rapids, Ia., is the name of the Iowa merchant involved in the latest alleged black-mail case. The names of the girls are Peggy Reed and Doris Byrne. They are 20 years old and live on Clarendon av.

Junkermann, through his attorneys, has complained to Hinton G. Clabaugh, special agent of the dept of justice, that he was the victim of a $5,000 shakedown after getting